A

Abstracts, NTI research, 428
Acetaminophen and salicylates: minor analgesic overdose (Goldfrank and Weisman), 215
Acid-base disturbances, experimentally induced, mixed venous blood-gas composition in (Griffith et al), 581
Acknowledgment of reviewers, 1
Adolescent, bleeding esophageal varices in (Berger et al), 661
Alcohol(s) and miscellaneous agents (Olson, McEnrue, and Greenbaum), 127 and sex (Johnson, Reeves, and Jackson), 93
Alternation, electrical (Arcebal and Lemberg), 456
American Association of Critical-Care Nurses, study by: research priorities for critical care nursing (Lewandowski and Kositsky), 35
Aminophylline, mixing of, in plastic intravenous fluid containers (Gong, Thompson, and King), 232
Amiodarone—investigative drug in coronary care unit (Valladares and Lemberg), 325
Analgesic overdose, minor: salicylates and acetaminophen (Goldfrank and Weisman), 215
Anatomy of profession (Styles), 570
Anemia and malignancies (Lynch and Jackson), 447
Angina pectoris, patients with, comparison of cardiocirculatory responses to intensive arm and leg training in (Ben Ari and Kellermann), 337
Angiomatous alterations, minute, of interatrial septum as possible cause of sudden death: report of four cases (Rajs, Edhag, and Härm), 81
Angioplasty, percutaneous transluminal coronary (Shillinger), 45
Antibiotic prophylaxis in surgical infection (O'Donnell), 20
Antidepressant overdose, tricyclic: clinical features and management (Rosen), 222
Antistasis footboard exercises, effect of, on selected measures of exertion (Ahrens, Kinney, and Carter), 366
Arm and leg training, intensive, in patients with angina pectoris, comparison of cardiocirculatory responses to (Ben Ari and Kellermann), 337
Arrhythmias after myocardial infarction, risk factors for (Trevino and Massey), 240 ventricular, invasive electrophysiologic approach to treatment of, nursing perspective of (Tyndall), 620
Arteriography, coronary, prior to hospital discharge after first myocardial infarction (Mautner and Phillips), 171
Artery(ies) catheter, axillary (Bryan-Brown et al), 492 disease, severe coronary, in asymptomatic patient (Valladares and Lemberg), 559 normal coronary, myocardial ischemia in mitral stenosis with (Friedensohn, Stryjer, and Schlesinger), 653 spasm, coronary, calcium channel blockers for treatment of: rationale, effects, and nursing responsibilities (Braun), 226 thrombolysis, coronary, in acute myocardial infarction (Abello and Lemberg), 100
Ascites, correction of, with peritoneovenous shunting: study of clinical management (Schumann), 248
Aspirin, sensitivity to, asthma, and nasal polyps—terrible triad (Wood, Mazow, and Jackson), 554
Asthma, nasal polyps, and sensitivity to aspirin—terrible triad (Wood, Mazow, and Jackson), 554
Asymptomatic patient, severe coronary artery disease in (Valladares and Lemberg), 559

Barbiturate(s) and potpourri of other sedatives, hypnotics, and tranquilizers (Gary and Tresznewsky), 122 therapy in acute head injuries, nursing management for (Mirr, Jankowski, and Taylon), 52
Bipolar and unipolar modes, temporary ventricular pacemakers demonstrating (Patros) 277
Bleeding esophageal varices in adolescent (Berger et al), 661
Block, 2:1 atrioventricular, with interference dissociation (Schamroth and Schamroth), 671
Blockers, calcium channel, for treatment of coronary artery spasm: rationale, effects, and nursing responsibilities (Braun), 226
Blood-gas composition, mixed venous, in experimentally induced acid-base disturbances (Griffith et al), 581 oxygen contents: Van Slyke analyzer vs. Lex O_2 Con (Dornbusch et al), 522 Books and audiovisual teaching material, reviews of, 107, 208, 331, 565, 676
Bowel syndrome, short, and total parenteral nutrition (Dudrick and Jackson), 195
Burn-related psychopathology, new approach to dressing change in severely burned child and its effect on (Kavanagh), 612

Cadaver organ procurement, intensive care nurses' perceptions of (Sophie et al), 261
Calcium channel blockers for treatment of coronary artery spasm: rationale, effects, and nursing responsibilities (Braun), 226
Cannulation, arterial, bedside pulmonary artery catheterization, and arterial puncture: invasive monitoring techniques (Kaye), 395
Cardiac output determination, thermodilution, reproducibility and accuracy of using room-temperature vs. ice-temperature injectate for (Shellock and Riedinger), 175
  postoperative low, in infancy (Johnson), 603 rehabilitation, early, controlled randomized study of: sickness impact profile as assessment tool (Ott et al), 162 interdisciplinary approach to (Schlesinger), 336
  Second World Congress (Kellermann), 335 surgery, protection of myocardium during (Seifert), 135
Cardiocirculatory responses to intensive arm and leg training, comparison of, in patients with angina pectoris (Ben Ari and Kellermann), 337
Cardiomyopathy, dilated (congestive): considerations for coronary care unit nurse (Wold), 544
Cardiopulmonary transplantation: initial experience (Covner and Shinn), 131

Catheter(s), axillary artery (Bryan-Brown et al), 492 flow-directed pulmonary artery, infusion delivery time of: clinical implications (Kahn and Kirsh), 630 intravascular: current guidelines for care and maintenance (Hudson-Civetta and Banner), 466
Swan-Ganz, troubleshooting (Runkel and Burke), 591
-transducer coupling systems for artifact, practical evaluation of (Miller and Zbilut), 156
venous and arterial: infection related to physiologic monitoring (Abbott, Walrath, and Scanlon-Trump), 28
Catheterization, bedside pulmonary artery, arterial puncture, and arterial cannulation: invasive monitoring techniques (Kaye), 395
cardiac, after acute myocardial infarction (Valladares and Lemberg), 666
Channel blockers, calcium, for treatment of coronary artery spasm: rationale, effects, and nursing responsibilities (Braun), 226
Child, severely burned, new approach to dressing change in, and its effect on burn-related psychopathology (Kavanagh), 612
Clinic, chronic congestive heart failure, nurse practitioner role in: in-hospital time, costs, and patient satisfaction (Cintron et al), 237
Coagulation studies, site for obtaining: intra-arterial line (Pryor), 586
Coma, hyperosmolar, nursing implications of (Winters), 439
Conduction, concealed, reciprocal rhythm with, study of (Bernard, Chia, and Schamroth), 454
Congress, Second World: cardiac rehabilitation (Kellermann), 335
Containers, plastic intravenous fluid, mixing of aminophylline in (Gong, Thompson, and King), 232
Costs, in-hospital time, and patient satisfaction: nurse practitioner role in chronic congestive heart failure clinic (Cintron et al), 237
Counseling and teaching, outpatient, after myocardial infarction, limited effects of: controlled study (Sivarajan et al), 65

D

Death, sudden, minute angiomatous alterations of interatrial septum as possible cause of: report of four cases (Rajs, Edhag, and Härm), 81
Defect, ventricular septal (Giboney), 292
Defense mechanisms: protecting healthy lung (Janson-Bjerklie), 643 Defibrillation effectiveness, transchest, and electrical impedance using disposable conductive pads (Tacker and Paris), 510 external, effects of, on permanent pacemakers (Owen), 274
Denial in coronary care patients—objective reassessment (Thomas et al), 74
Diagnosis, nursing: framework, process, and problems (Guzzetta and Dossey), 281
rose by any other name (Dracup), 211
Directions, asking (Dracup), 569 Disease, ischemic heart, atrial pacing in diagnosis of (Gotsman et al), 372 pericardial, computerized tomography in (Solomon et al), 513 pulmonary hydatid: four-year experience in urban black hospital (Herman et al), 597 severe coronary artery, in asymptomatic patient (Valladares and Lemberg), 559
Dissection, aortic, presenting with hemoptysis: diagnostic confirmation of dissection and leak by computerized tomography (Barbash et al), 633
Dissociation, interference, 2:1 atrioventricular block with (Schamroth and Schamroth), 671
"Diving reflex," use of, in paroxysmal atrial tachycardia (Valladares and Lemberg), 202
Dressing change in severely burned child, new approach to, and its effect on burn-related psychopathology (Kavanagh), 612
Drug intoxication, recognition, general considerations, and techniques in management of (Olson, McEnrue, and Greenbaum), 110 investigative, in coronary care unit—amiodarone (Valladares and Lemberg), 325 mixing, inadequate: potential hazard in continuous intravenous administration (Gong and King), 528

Echocardiographic evaluation of left ventricular function in post-myocardial infarction patients participating in long-term rehabilitation program (Algom, Sabin, and Schlesinger), 341
Effusions, malignant pleural: pertinent issues (Wegmann and Forshee), 533 Electrical alternation (Arcebal and Lemberg), 456 impedance and transchest defibrillation effectiveness using disposable conductive pads (Tacker and Paris), 510
Electrocardiograms, effect of fatigue on vigilance of nurses monitoring (Daly and Wilson), 384
Electrocardiographic Q waves, transient, in spontaneous pneumothorax: case report (Kaimal), 268
Electrophysiologic approach, invasive, to treatment of ventricular arrhythmias, nursing perspective of (Tyndall), 620
Emergency medicine, adjunct to: precordial thump (Patros and Goren), 61 treatment of tension pneumothorax, emergency cardiac pacing, pericardiocentesis, and intracardiac injections: invasive therapeutic techniques (Kaye), 300
Endobronchial fluid, presence of myeloma protein in (Henning et al), 148
Epidemic disease: genital herpes (Couch et al), 320
Ergometric and hemodynamic evaluation, short- and long-term prognostic and functional stratification of acute myocardial infarction by (Rossi et al), 344
Esophageal varices, bleeding, in adolescent (Berger et al), 661
Exercises, antistasis footboard, effect of, on selected measures of exertion (Ahrens, Kinney, and Carter), 366
Exertion, selected measures of, effect of antistasis footboard exercises on (Ahrens, Kinney, and Carter), 366
Extrasystoles, end-diastolic ventricular, with varying degrees of ventricular fusion (Kobelskis and Schamroth), 98

F

Familial atrial myxoma with bilateral recurrence (Grauer and Grauer), 600
Families in intensive care unit: their effect on staff (Dunkel and Eisendrath), 258
Fasciitis, necrotizing (Hamelink), 656
Fatigue, effect of, on vigilance of nurses monitoring electrocardiograms (Daly and Wilson), 384
Fixation, intermaxillary, nursing care of patients in (Frost and Frost), 524
Fluid, endobronchial, presence of myeloma protein in (Henning et al), 148

Footboard exercises, antistasis, effect of, on selected measures of exertion (Ahrens, Kinney, and Carter), 366
Fusion, ventricular, varying degrees of, end-diastolic ventricular extrasystoles with (Kobelskis and Schamroth), 98

G

Genital herpes: epidemic disease (Couch et al), 320

H

Head injuries, acute, nursing management for barbiturate therapy in (Mirr, Jankowski, and Taylon), 52
Hemodynamic and ergometric evaluation, short- and long-term prognostic and functional stratification of acute mayocardial infarction by (Rossi et al), 344
Hemoptysis, aortic dissection presenting with: diagnostic confirmation of dissection and leak by computerized tomography (Barbash et al), 633
Herpes, genital: epidemic disease (Couch et al), 320
Hospital discharge after first myocardial infarction, coronary arteriography prior to (Mautner and Phillips), 171 urban black, four-year experience in: pulmonary hydatid disease (Herman et al), 597
Hospitalized patients, long-staying, method of selecting sample of, with nosocomial infections as outcome event (Chavigny and Fischer), 15
Host, compromised, infection in—overview (Kottra), 10
Hydatid disease, pulmonary: four-year experience in urban black hospital (Herman et al), 597
Hyperosmolar coma, nursing implications of (Winters), 439
Hypnotics, tranquilizers, and sedatives, barbiturates and a potpourri of other (Gary and Tresznewsky), 122

I

Impedance, electrical, using disposable conductive pads, transchest defibrillation effectiveness and (Tacker and Paris), 510
Infancy, postoperative low cardiac output in (Johnson), 603 Infarction, acute myocardial, cardiac catheterization after (Valladares and Lemberg), 666 coronary artery thrombolysis in (Abello and Lemberg), 100 left ventricular echocardiogram profiles after (Vlodaver et al), 351
myocardial rupture in: case report and review of literature (Sarkar and Krupadev), 88
routine prophylactic lidocaine in (Barnaby, Barrett, and Lvoff), 362
short- and long-term prognostic and functional stratification of, by hemodynamic and ergometric evaluation (Rossi et al), 344
Type A/B differences in coping with: further considerations (Gentry et al), 212 first myocardial, coronary arteriography prior to hospital discharge after (Mautner and Phillips), 171 myocardial, lidocaine prophylaxis in: concept whose time has come (Wyman and Gore), 358 limited effects of outpatient teaching and counseling after: controlled study (Sivarajan et al), 65 risk factors for arrhythmias after (Trevino and Massey), 240 Infection(s) in compromised host—overview (Kottra), 10 and malnourished patient (Keithley), 23
nosocomial, as outcome event, long-staying hospitalized patients with, method of selecting sample of (Chavigny and Fischer), 15 related to physiologic monitoring: venous and arterial catheters (Abbott, Walrath, and Scanlon-Trump), 28 Infection(s)—cont'd respiratory, in mechanically ventilated patient—overview (Podjasek), 5 surgical, antibiotic prophylaxis in (O'Donnell), 20
Infusion delivery time of flow-directed pulmonary artery catheter: clinical implications (Kahn and Kirsh), 630
Injectate, ice-temperature vs. room-temperature, for thermodilution cardiac output determination, reproducibility and accuracy of (Shellock and Riedinger), 175
Injections, intracardiac, emergency cardiac pacing, pericardiocentesis, and emergency treatment of tension pneumothorax: invasive therapeutic techniques (Kaye), 300
Injuries, acute head, nursing management for barbiturate therapy in (Mirr, Jankowski, and Taylon), 52
Interdisciplinary approach to cardiac rehabilitation (Schlesinger), 336
Intoxication, drug, recognition, general considerations, and techniques in management of (Olson, McEnrue, and Greenbaum), 110
Intubation, orotracheal or nasotracheal, and tracheostomy, compromises in choice of (Mackenzie), 485
Ischemia, myocardial, in mitral stenosis with normal coronary arteries (Friedensohn, Stryjer, and Schlesinger), 653
Ischemic heart disease, atrial pacing in diagnosis of (Gotsman et al), 372

J

Jet ventilation, high-frequency: nursing perspective (Warren and Howell), 432

L

Leg and arm training, intensive, comparison of cardiocirculatory responses to, in patients with angina pectoris (Ari and Kellermann), 337
Letters to editors, 104, 206, 329, 461, 562, 673
Leukemia, septic patient with, who requires ventilatory assistance, management of (Brunckhorst et al), 636
Lex O_2 Con vs. Van Slyke analyzer: blood oxygen contents (Dornbusch et al), 522 Lidocaine prophylaxis in myocardial infarction: concept whose time has come (Wyman and Gore), 358 routine prophylactic, in acute myocardial infarction (Barnaby, Barrett, and Lvoff), 362 Line, intra-arterial: site for obtaining coagulation studies (Pryor), 586
Lung, healthy, protecting: defense mechanisms (Janson-Bjerklie), 643

M

Malignancies and anemia (Lynch and Jackson), 447
Malignant pleural effusions: pertinent issues (Wegmann and Forshee), 533
Malnourished patient, infection and (Keithley), 23
Maxillary fixation, inter-, nursing care of patients in (Frost and Frost), 524
Microcomputer, use of, in intensive care unit (de Calonne et al), 516
Mixing of aminophylline in plastic intravenous fluid containers (Gong, Thompson, and King), 232 inadequate drug: potential hazard in continuous intravenous administration (Gong and King), 528
Modes, bipolar and unipolar, temporary ventricular pacemakers demonstrating (Patros), 277
Monitoring, physiologic, infection related to: venous and arterial catheters (Abbott, Walrath, and Scanlon-Trump), 28

Monitoring—cont'd
techniques, invasive: arterial cannulation, bedside pulmonary artery catheterization, and arterial puncture (Kaye), 395
Myeloma protein, presence of, in endobronchial fluid (Henning et al), 148
Myocardial infarction, acute, coronary artery thrombolysis in (Abello and Lemberg), 100
left ventricular echocardiogram profiles after (Vlodaver et al), 351
myocardial rupture in: case report and review of literature (Sarkar and Krupadev), 88
routine prophylactic lidocaine in (Barnaby, Barrett, and Lvoff), 362
short- and long-term prognostic and functional stratification of, by hemodynamic and ergometric evaluation (Rossi et al), 344
Type A/B differences in coping with: further considerations (Gentry et al), 212
arrhythmias after, risk factors for (Trevino and Massey), 240 first, coronary arteriography prior to hospital discharge after (Mautner and Phillips), 171 lidocaine prophylaxis in: concept whose time has come (Wyman and Gore), 358
limited effects of outpatient teaching and counseling after: controlled study (Sivarajan et al), 65 rupture in acute myocardial infarction: case report and review of literature (Sarkar and Krupadev), 88
Myocardium, protection of, during cardiac surgery (Seifert), 135
Myxoma, familial atrial, with bilateral recurrence (Grauer and Grauer), 600

N

Nasotracheal or orotracheal intubation and tracheostomy, compromises in choice of (Mackenzie), 485
National Teaching Institute research abstracts, 428
Necrotizing fasciitis (Hamelink), 656
Neurological basis of sleep (Chuman), 177
Nosocomial infections as outcome event, long-staying hospitalized patients with, method of selecting sample of (Chavigny and Fischer), 15
NTI research abstracts, 428
Nurse(s), coronary care unit, considerations for: dilated (congestive) cardiomyopathy (Wold), 544 intensive care, compared with non-intensive care nurses: stress-tolerant people (Maloney and Bartz), 389 perceptions of cadaver organ procurement (Sophie et al), 261 monitoring electrocardiograms, effect of fatigue on vigilance of (Daly and Wilson), 384 and physician joint practice: description of nurse practitioners on cardiac surgery service (Weiland), 576 practitioner role in chronic congestive heart failure clinic: in-hospital time, costs, and patient satisfaction (Cintron et al), 237 Nursing care of patients in intermaxillary fixation (Frost and Frost), 524 crisis—thyroid storm (Evangelisti and Thorpe), 184 critical care, research priorities for: study by American Association of Critical-Care Nurses (Lewandowski and Kositsky), 35 diagnosis: framework, process, and problems (Guzzetta and Dossey), 281
rose by any other name (Dracup), 211
implications of hyperosmolar coma (Winters), 439

Nursing—cont'd
in intensive care unit and clinical research (Loanzon, Weissman, and Askanazi), 480 management for barbiturate therapy in acute head injuries (Mirr, Jankowski, and Taylon), 52 perspective of invasive electrophysiologic approach to treatment of ventricular arrhythmias (Tyndall), 620 research, another case for (Dracup), 3
Nutrition, total parenteral, short bowel syndrome and (Dudrick and Jackson), 195
Nutritional support of the acutely ill patient (Delaney et al), 477

O

Opiates and opioids (Goldfrank, Bresnitz, and Weisman), 114
Opioids and opiates (Goldfrank, Bresnitz, and Weisman), 114
Organ procurement, cadaver, intensive care nurses' perceptions of (Sophie et al), 261
Orotracheal or nasotracheal intubation and tracheostomy, compromises in choice of (Mackenzie), 485
Outpatient teaching and counseling after myocardial infarction, limited effects of: controlled study (Sivarajan et al), 65
Output, postoperative low cardiac, in infancy (Johnson), 603
Overdose, minor analgesic: salicylates and acetaminophen (Goldfrank and Weisman), 215
tricyclic antidepressant: clinical features and management (Rosen), 222 Overview: challenging infection in 1980s: second annual surgical nursing symposium—Rush-Presbyterian-St. Luke's Medical Center (Kottra), 4 changing practice of critical care: compromise or advance? University of Texas Health Science Center Symposium (Bryan-Brown), 465 Oxygen contents, blood: Van Slyke analyzer vs. Lex O_2 Con (Dornbusch et al), 522

P

Pacemakers, permanent, effects of external defibrillation on (Owen), 274 temporary ventricular, demonstrating bipolar and unipolar modes (Patros), 277 Pacing, atrial, in diagnosis of ischemic heart disease (Gotsman et al), 372 emergency cardiac, pericardiocentesis, intracardiac injections, and emergency treatment of tension pneumothorax: invasive therapeutic techniques (Kaye), 300
Pads, disposable conductive, transchest defibrillation effectiveness and electrical impedance using (Tacker and Paris), 510
PaO_2, use of patient positioning to improve: review (Grosmaire), 650
Pericardial disease, computerized tomography in (Solomon et al), 513
Pericardiocentesis, intracardiac injections, emergency cardiac pacing, and emergency treatment of tension pneumothorax: invasive therapeutic techniques (Kaye), 300
Physician and nurse joint practice: description of nurse practitioners on cardiac surgery service (Weiland), 576
Physiologic monitoring, infection related to: venous and arterial catheters (Abbott, Walrath, and Scanlon-Trump), 28
Pleural effusions, malignant: pertinent issues (Wegmann and Forshee), 533
Pneumothorax, spontaneous, transient electrocardiographic Q waves in: case report (Kaimal), 268

Pneumothorax—cont'd tension, emergency treatment of, emergency cardiac pacing, pericardiocentesis, and intracardiac injections: invasive therapeutic techniques (Kaye), 300
Polyps, nasal, asthma, and sensitivity to aspirin—terrible triad (Wood, Mazow, and Jackson), 554
Positioning, patient, use of, to improve PaO_2: review (Grosmaire), 650
Practice, nurse and physician joint: description of nurse practitioners on cardiac surgery service (Weiland), 576
Precordial thump: adjunct to emergency medicine (Patros and Goren), 61
Pressure, positive end-expiratory, effect of, on pulmonary capillary wedge pressure (Gershan), 143
Profession, anatomy of (Styles), 570
Profiles, left ventricular echocardiogram, after acute myocardial infarction (Vlodaver et al), 351
Prognostic and functional stratification, short- and long-term, of acute myocardial infarction by hemodynamic and ergometric evaluation (Rossi et al), 344
Program, long-term rehabilitation, echocardiographic evaluation of left ventricular function in post–myocardial infarction patients participating in (Algom, Sabin, and Schlesinger), 341
Prophylactic lidocaine, routine, in acute myocardial infarction (Barnaby, Barrett, and Lvoff), 362
Prophylaxis, antibiotic, in surgical infection (O'Donnell), 20
lidocaine, in myocardial infarction: concept whose time has come (Wyman and Gore), 358
Prostheses, cardiac valve, and their selection, review of (Weiland), 498
Protecting transducer—practical approach (Heistand, Santerre, and Harrow), 383
Protection of myocardium during cardiac surgery (Seifert), 135
Protein myeloma, presence of, in endobronchial fluid (Henning et al), 148
Psychopathology, burn-related, new approach to dressing change in severely burned child and its effect on (Kavanagh), 612
Puncture, arterial, arterial cannulation, and bedside pulmonary artery catheterization: invasive monitoring techniques (Kaye), 395

Q waves, transient electrocardiographic, in spontaneous pneumothorax: case report (Kaimal), 268

R

Reflex, diving, use of, in paroxysmal atrial tachycardia (Valladares and Lemberg), 202
Rehabilitation, cardiac, interdisciplinary approach to (Schlesinger), 336
Second World Congress (Kellermann), 335
early cardiac, controlled randomized study of: sickness impact profile as assessment tool (Ott et al), 162 program, long-term, echocardiographic evaluation of left ventricular function in post–myocardial infarction patients participating in (Algom, Sabin, and Schlesinger), 341 Research, clinical, and nursing in intensive care unit (Loanzon, Weissman, and Askanazi), 480 nursing, another case for (Dracup), 3 priorities for critical care nursing: study by American Association of Critical-Care Nurses (Lewandowski and Kositsky), 35
Respiratory infection in mechanically ventilated patient—overview (Podjasek), 5
Responses, cardiocirculatory, to intensive arm and leg training, comparison of, in patients with angina pectoris (Ari and Kellermann), 337
Reviews of books and audiovisual teaching material, 107, 208, 331, 565, 676
Reviewers, acknowledgment of, 1
Rhythm, reciprocal, with concealed conduction, study of (Bernard, Chia, and Schamroth), 454
Risk factors for arrhythmias after myocardial infarction (Trevino and Massey), 240
Rupture, myocardial, in acute myocardial infarction: case report and review of literature (Sarkar and Krupadev), 88

Salicylates and acetaminophen: minor analgesic overdose (Goldfrank and Weisman), 215
Sedatives, hypnotics, and tranquilizers, barbiturates and a potpourri of other (Gary and Tresznewsky), 122
Septal defect, ventricular (Giboney), 292
Septic patient, management of, with leukemia who requires ventilatory assistance (Brunckhorst et al), 636
Septum, interatrial, minute angiomatous alterations of, as possible cause of sudden death: report of four cases (Rajs, Edhag, and Härm), 81
Sex and alcohol (Johnson, Reeves, and Jackson), 93
Shunting, peritoneovenous, correction of ascites with: study of clinical management (Schumann), 248
Sickness impact profile as assessment tool: controlled randomized study of early cardiac rehabilitation (Ott et al), 162
Sleep, neurological basis of (Chuman), 177
Spasm, coronary artery, calcium channel blockers for treatment of: rationale, effects, and nursing responsibilities (Braun), 226
Staff, effect on: families in intensive care unit (Dunkel and Eisendrath), 258
Stenosis, mitral, myocardial ischemia in, with normal coronary arteries (Friedensohn, Stryjer, and Schlesinger), 653
Stress-tolerant people: intensive care nurses compared with nonintensive care nurses (Maloney and Bartz), 389
Surgery, cardiac, protection of myocardium during (Seifert), 135 service, cardiac, description of nurse practitioners on: physician and nurse joint practice (Weiland), 576
Surgical infection, antibiotic prophylaxis in (O'Donnell), 20
Swan-Ganz catheters, troubleshooting (Runkel and Burke), 591
Symposium overview: clinical aspects of drug intoxication: St. Vincent's Hospital Symposium—part I (Greenbaum), 109
Syndrome, short bowel, and total parenteral nutrition (Dudrick and Jackson), 195

T

Tachycardia, paroxysmal atrial, use of "diving reflex" in (Valladares and Lemberg), 202
polymorphous ventricular: torsade de pointes (Kim and Chung), 269
Tamponade, cardiac: initial study in development of predictive tool (Keck et al,) 505
Teaching and counseling, outpatient, after myocardial infarction, limited effects of: controlled study (Sivarajan et al), 65
Techniques, invasive monitoring: arterial cannulation, bedside pulmonary artery catheterization, and arterial puncture (Kaye), 395

Techniques, invasive—cont'd therapeutic: emergency cardiac pacing, pericardiocentesis, intracardiac injections, and emergency treatment of tension pneumothorax (Kaye), 300 recognition, and general considerations in management of drug intoxication (Olson, McEnrue, and Greenbaum), 110
Therapeutic techniques, invasive: emergency cardiac pacing, pericardiocentesis, intracardiac injections, and emergency treatment of tension pneumothorax (Kaye), 300
Thermodilution cardiac output determination, reproducibility and accuracy of using room-temperature vs. ice-temperature injectate for (Shellock and Riedinger), 175
Thrombolysis, coronary artery, in acute myocardial infarction (Abello and Lemberg), 100
Thump, precordial: adjunct to emergency medicine (Patros and Goren), 61
Thyroid storm—nursing crisis (Evangelisti and Thorpe), 184
Time, infusion delivery, of flow-directed pulmonary artery catheter: clinical implications (Kahn and Kirsh), 630 in-hospital, costs, and patient satisfaction: nurse practitioner role in chronic congestive heart failure clinic (Cintron et al), 237 Tomography, computerized, diagnostic confirmation of dissection and leak by: aortic dissection presenting with hemoptysis (Barbash et al), 633 in pericardial disease (Solomon et al), 513
Torsade de pointes: polymorphous ventricular tachycardia (Kim and Chung), 269
